* Harrietstown will be participating in the National Wildlife Federation's Mayor's Monarch Pledge for 2024. This will include several actions over the course of the year to support education and awareness about the importance of Monarch butterflies. The Monarch butterfly is an iconic species whose eastern populations have declined by 90% and western populations by 99% in recent years. Through the National Wildlife Federation's Mayors' Monarch Pledge, U.S. cities, municipalities, and other communities are committing to create habitat for the Monarch butterfly and pollinators, and to educate residents about how they can make a difference at home and in their communities.
